As District Commander
Tonight

Ceremonies in Club House to Be Witnessed by Large Crowd

Officers of the 18th District of the American Legion of the department of California will be installed tonight in the Sierra Madre Woman's Clubhouse. R. W. Stewart of Sierra Madre is the new commander, Charles R. Zug of Covina is vice commander, Howard B. Dickie of Lamanda Park has been appointed adjutant and A. A. Hircher of Temple finance officer. The executive officers were chosen by the 18th district delegation to the recent state convention at Stockton.

Earl Chinn of Pomona, retiring district commander, will open the meeting. Following the installation he will hand the gavel over to Mr. Stewart who will wield it during a two-year term. The installing officer will be Charles Wright of San Luis Obispo, commander of the fourth area, which includes San Luis Obispo, Ventura, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles counties.

Prominent members of the Legion and Auxiliary from all over the south are expected to attend the ceremonies. An attendance of 400 is expected, rather a large gathering for Sierra Madre. However, the Legionnaires of the district were anxious that the meeting be held here in compliment to Mr. Stewart.

Following the installation ceremonies there will be cards, and also dancing to the music of the Los Angeles Downtown Club orchestra. Between dances entertainment will be furnished by well known artists from Los Angeles.

Artist Receives
New Honors from Summer Exhibits

Miss Ella Shepard Bush has returned to her home and studio at 223 West Laurel after a thoroughly enjoyable visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Fleming of Long Beach, well known art collectors and critics. They attended not only the exposition where Miss Bush received honors among many other California artists, but enjoyed a series of talks at the Wayside Colony which Mr. and Mrs. James Savory have founded. They were called "Mornings in Art." Notable exhibitors spoke of their work in sculpture, painting and the crafts, and a luncheon followed. The affairs are expected to exert a lasting effect on the art life of Southern California.

Since returning home Miss Bush has received word that she is among the prize winners at the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona. The award was made to a miniature painting of Mr. Fleming.

Hudson and Essex
Piling up Records
As Fast Sellers

Hudson and Essex automobiles have topped all other makes or six-cylinder cars in 1928 sales, according to O. B. Eller, proprietor of Blayne Motors. This is naturally a source of great pride to the local distributors.

But Mr. Eller is just as proud of another record. He has received notice from headquarters that during the first two months in which he had charge of Hudson Essex distribution more cars of those makes were sold in this territory than during the entire 12 months preceding.

Sierra Madre business property is getting dolled up this week with the application of lots of paint. Hapgood & Carlson are decorating the stores, inside and out, in the Isaacs buildings along the south side of Central. J. A. Kimball is painting the old town hall building at the corner of Central and Baldwin which belongs to A. N. Adams.

SIERRA MADRE BALL
TEAM MAY BE CALLED ON TO DEFEND HONOR

A dark plot is being hatched up (it is asserted) in this man's town to organize a ball team with the avowed purpose of flinging down the mailed mit to Manager C. B. Scott's team, and engage in mortal conflict on the local diamond.

It seems that Mr. Scott has stirred up so much interest in the great American pastime that the woods are filled to overflowing with recruits. As there are only nine positions on the "first" team, a number of mighty sweet players have been forced to sit on the sidelines, and it is rumored that the "wall-flowers" are getting ready to issue a challenge in the not-too-distant future.

Such a contest should be intensely interesting, not to mention the excitement, and further announcement will be breathlessly awaited.

Officers of Reavis, second vice president; Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, recording secretary; Mrs. Agnes Tyree, Mrs. Henry Olsen, corresponding secretary-treasurer; L. E. Rainsback, Mrs. Hortense Hill, Mrs. Agnes Tyree and Mrs. N. J. Farr.

Landscaping Adds
Much to Beauty
Of Average Lot

The Ward Nursery has started this week a series of ads in the News telling how landscape beauty need not be confined to the large estate but can be enjoyed by the small or medium sized property owner.

The Ward Nursery, which has been in business in Sierra Madre more than twenty years, has a staff of experienced architects. Many samples of their work can be found here and in surrounding towns, even as far away as Long Beach. As for Sierra Madre, the majority of the better homes, as well as the Sierra Madre City Park, have had their grounds planned and planted by them.

Miss Jessie Ward takes care of the designing of the landscape plans and also superintends the planting.

Mrs. Nellie W. Yerxa of South Pasadena entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon with a matinee party at the Pasadena Community Playhouse where they enjoyed "Puppy Love," the current popular offering. The occasion was by way of farewell, as Mrs. Yerxa is leaving for Laguna Beach where she and her son, Cabot A. Yerxa, have built a new home. The guests included Mrs. M. D. Welscher, Mrs. Alice M. Staples, Mrs. W. F. Thayer Sr., Mrs. W. S. Andrews, Mrs. Edna Yerxa and Miss Jeanette Yerxa.

Last Concert
Of Season at
Park Tonite

Program by Local Musicians
Climaxes Season of Events

Band Will Play Standard and Classical Overtures and Marches

The last concert of the present Park Series will be presented tonight at the City Park by Sierra Madre's own band.

After a season which has been rather remarkable because of the number and quality of bands that have appeared, tonight's concert is being pleasurably anticipated.

The Elks Band of Pasadena opened the park concert series with a splendid concert. The band was under the management of "Cliff" Farmer, a former resident of this city. The Scot Band of Pasadena, under the direction of E. P. Melvin, was next in order and their concert will be long remembered. The L. A. Firemen's Band, one of the most famous organizations in the Southland, next favored the local music lovers, and the Boy Scouts Band of Los Angeles then came out and showed the old timers a few things from the standpoint of Youthful America.

Perhaps no small city in the land has ever enjoyed such a fine concert season by outside musicians, who came purely in a spirit of friendship and good will.

And now the outdoor season is to close with a concert by a band organized so recently that tonight's concert marks the first appearance.

The personnel of the band, under the direction of Leland Auer, is as follows: Tasker Webster, solo cornet; Donald Blanke, trumpet; Howard and Leroy MacBurney, Roy Edwards and Lynden Murray, clarinets; Jas. N. Hawks and Selwyn Myers, mellophones; Walter Heber, baritone; J. R. Eastwood, trombone; Frank Hildebrandt and M. A. Card, bass; E. H. Keegan, E. H. Keegan, Jr., and Emanuel Silberman, drums.

The band will be augmented by three or four members from the Scot band, it being necessary to add instruments to round out the various sections.

The program will include standard marches and overtures, many of the selections being of difficult grade. The program: "Officer of the Day," R. B. Hall "King of Diamonds," Overture. "After Sunset," Serenade. "Moonlight on the Nile," Novelty. "Liberty Day," March. Zamecnik Intermission. "Our Director," March. King "Millicent," Waltz. "Prince of Pilsen," Overture. "War Correspondent," Holmes

Walter Hildebrandt, proprietor of an ice cream factory and lunch room on Foothill Boulevard suffered the loss of his right hand on Tuesday. He was cleaning an ice cream-making machine when his hand was caught in moving gears. Before the machinery could be stopped his hand was so badly mangled that amputation was necessary.

Gray Opens Kodak
Finishing Shop
In Sierra Madre

E. B. Gray is embarking upon commercial kodak finishing and enlarging with headquarters in Sierra Madre. He is carrying on the work at 81 Victoria Lane where he has been residing since returning from his summer trip east. He has already arranged to handle the work for a number of local dealers and expects to bring in a considerable amount of work from the outside.

For about twenty years Mr. Gray has been a photographer and kodak finisher at various mountain resorts. The postcards and kodak prints he has turned out would run into millions and his large mountain pictures have also been widely distributed.

Florida Relief
Quota of $300 is Asked of Chapter

Relief needs following the Florida hurricane are so urgent that Sierra Madre has been asked to raise $300 for the American Red Cross. Notice of the quota was received here yesterday by W. R. Humphries, chairman, and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, secretary. Every day this week has seen the death toll mount. The extent of the disaster in property damage and widespread distress has grown correspondingly.

Sierra Madre has never yet failed to respond to the call for help. The Red Cross is the recognized agency for relief and prompt remittance to local headquarters will be more than welcome.

Married At Little Church
Of Flowers

Herbert Munson Takes Popular Temple Maid for Bride

The wedding of Miss Edna Medearis and Mr. Herbert A. Munson was solemnized in the Little Church of the Flowers, Glendale, Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. O. Pritchard of the Congregational Church of Sierra Madre in the presence of a company of friends and relatives which filled the church.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Medearis of Temple, was groomed in pale pink tulle over satin and carried pink roses and white sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Hazel Ansted as maid of honor, wearing chartreuse green taffeta and carrying orchid color sweet peas. Louis Crow served as best man and ushers were Ivan Munson and Jack Osgood. Isabel Fox played "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning" before the ceremony, and the Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Munson of East Pasadena. He has for several years served as clerk-carrier in the Sierra Madre post office. After a honeymoon at Catalina Mr. and Mrs. Munson will be at home at 1103 Rose Avenue, Lamanda Park, where the groom recently built a home.

Lodge Members
And Friends to Hear Star Talk

Members of the Masonic order and their ladies are promised a real treat next Tuesday night when the first of the fall social affairs will be given. The chief attraction will be a short stereoscopic lecture on the stars and the work of Mt. Wilson observatory by Prof. P. W. Stoner, head of the department of astronomy at Pasadena high school and junior college. Mr. Stoner shows a splendid collection of pictures on the screen which he explains in non-technical terms. He will be glad to answer questions on the subject of astronomy and also concerning the work and aims of the department of mathematics in junior college.

Following the lecture there will be refreshments and cards for those who wish to play. Convers. L. Twycross, master of the lodge, extends a cordial invitation to all Masons to come and bring their wives. The lecture is announced to begin at 8 o'clock.

Woodrow Wilson
P.T.A. Will Meet

First meeting of the Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association will be held Thursday, Sept. 27, at 2:30, according to announcement of Mrs. Philip Senour, president. This meeting will be made a social occasion to afford an opportunity for the members to become better acquainted before taking up the problems and activities of the school year. A large attendance of members of Sierra Madre pupils is especially requested.

Compromise
Expected In Water Case

Conservation of Santa Anita Basin Water is Aim of Cities

Sierra Madre Seeks to Limit
Exportation from Local Basin

The question of water rights of the Santa Anita Creek and basin, a matter which involves the cities of Sierra Madre, Arcadia and Monrovia, and also the Oakwood Syndicate, is expected to be adjusted by compromise, according to City Engineer O. A. Gerlich.

There are two phases involved in the controversy, which are combined for the purpose of the proposed compromise: First, the questions arising out of the exportation of water from the Santa Anita Basin, by Arcadia; and, second, the status of the surplus flood waters conserved by the flood control district dam in the Santa Anita canyon.

As to the latter, applications to the division of water rights for appropriations of water have been filed by the Oakwood Syndicate, the city of Arcadia, and the city of Sierra Madre. Protest against these applications has been filed also by Monrovia.

It has been practically determined that Monrovia's Chapman Wells are not in the Santa Anita Basin. Monrovia's interest is, therefore, limited to the protection of its lands within its corporate limits and in the Santa Anita Basin.

As to the exportation of water, it was observed several years ago by Sierra Madre's engineer that the underground water supply in this basin was being gradually and persistently depleted. When the city engineer and the city attorney reported this situation to the council, the city promptly employed A. L. Sonderegger, an engineer specializing in water supply, and James H. Howard as water rights attorney.

Realizing that some time must elapse before the controversy respecting exportation of water from the basin would be settled, and in order to fix a time as of which the export rights could be measured, Sierra Madre filed suit against Arcadia praying an injunction against exportation of water beyond established rights. This suit will be settled in the pending compromise; in fact the final agreement may be embodied in a stipulated judgment.

Following the preliminary hearing, before the state division of water rights on protests to the filing of Oakwood Syndicate on surplus flow of the Big Santa Anita Creek, after a thorough discussion it was agreed that the first and most important step would be to determine the present exportation rights of Arcadia, and of the syndicate. Next, to determine a program for obtaining hydrological data in the basin; and, third, to determine the best method of spreading and utilizing the water in the basin. It was unanimously agreed from an engineering and physical standpoint that the conservation of water in the basin is necessary for its best utilization for the region.

A committee consisting of Willis S. Jones, representing Arcadia; A. L. Sonderegger, Sierra Madre; Donald Baker, Oakwood Syndicate; and H. S. Gerlich, Monrovia, will collect data, ascertain boundaries, etc., and their findings will be submitted to a committee of attorneys. A joint meeting of the two committees has been called for November 3rd.

If a compromise is effected it will mean an enormous saving to all the interested parties, according to Mr. Gerlich, as in most cases the allocation of water rights ordinarily involves lengthy and expensive litigation over a period of years. It has always been the aim of the cities involved in this basin, however, to reach an amicable agreement without recourse to the courts.

Robert Annas now has his big new oven in the Home Bakery working in fine shape. It took a few days to become acquainted with the new equipment but it is now turning out beautifully baked bread, rolls and pastry. It is the latest equipment with eight revolving trays having a total capacity of 100 loaves.

NEWS WILL SOON
MOVE TO SPLENDID
NEW BUILDING

It won't be long now! Within the next week, or ten days at the most, the News plant will be permanently located in the new building now nearing completion on Kersting Court.

Following the enforced temporary removal of the plant from its old location the first of the month, the staff has been laboring under many disadvantages, but now that the struggle is about over it assumes the aspect of the small boy who liked to pound his thumb with a hammer; "it felt so good when he quit."

The new office will not only be one of the best designed buildings from a point of newspaper efficiency, but will be a distinct addition to the business district.

Committee
Makes Study
School Facts

Chairman Burbank Presents
Plan of Investigation
To Kiwanis

Illuminating and encouraging were the remarks of E. D. Burbank at Tuesday's Kiwanis luncheon concerning the work of the school committee now at work on investigations of the local school system. The speaker confined his remarks largely to an outline of basic principles governing the investigation, and to brief comment on work already done. But so pleased were his hearers that a unanimous vote of confidence was extended to the committee when he closed.

Particular care should be used by all in discussing the school problem, said Mr. Burbank, to prevent the spread of misinformation. He quoted some misstatements of fact which had become current through careless use of statistics originally given correctly and in good faith.

It will be the aim of the committee to present to the public a complete statement of facts covering various proposed plans of action. These will be considered from standpoint of school finance, physical equipment such as building and grounds, curriculum and community policy. The committee will ask the aid of a large number of people in collecting facts and making the necessary studies.

Sale of Clarke's newstand and confectionery business to Arthur Johnson and Arthur Johnson, Jr., was announced yesterday. The new owners will take possession October 1. Both are well and favorably known here. G. A. Clarke and family will return to their former home in Dickinson, N. D. Mr. Clark says that after giving California a year's trial most of his family feel that they want to return "to a good country." While their North Dakota friends will welcome them, the many friends they have made here will keenly regret their departure.

Jury Disagrees
In Court Case
Of E. P. Meyers

Disagreement on the part of the jury was the outcome of the all-day trial of F. P. Meyers on a charge of being drunk upon a public street, in the court of Judge William C. Shaw on Wednesday. The case attracted large attendance at all three sessions. There was a marked disagreement of testimony as to the condition of Meyers, conversations between him and Officer McMillen and the officer's treatment of the defendant. The jury stood nine to one for acquittal. The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Eye, and the defendant was represented by Atty. George Friend. The latter offered a motion to dismiss the case after the verdict of the jury had been announced, but the motion was denied by Judge Shaw.

Attendance
At Schools
Increases

Gain in Enrollment is Shown in Every School at Opening

Work Starts on Schedule
With Minimum of Confusion

Attendance at Sierra Madre schools shows a considerable increase over the same period last year, according to figures furnished from the various schools. While there are belated registrations every day and the figures continue to grow, that is the common annual experience.

At Sierra Madre elementary school and kindergarten, the opening day registration was 311, according to Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal. This is an increase of nine over the same day last year.

At Woodrow Wilson junior high the total registration from Sierra Madre on the opening day this year was 156. This is for grades from 7th to 10th inclusive. Last year the 10th grade was not a part of the junior high curriculum. Comparison of the Sierra Madre registration for the 7th, 8th and 9th grades shows 139 this year as against 106 last year, a gain of thirty-three.

At St. Rita's Catholic school the registration this week was sixty. This is an increase of 11 over the same period last year.

From these figures an increase of 53 over last year is shown in the grades below high school. The high school and junior college registration by Sierra Madre pupils is not obtainable at this time.

One of the busiest places in Sierra Madre school is the kindergarten. Miss Thorpe and Miss Bayard have more than fifty youngsters in their charge and it is a happy family to be proud of. Down at Woodrow Wilson junior high school started without the confusion incident to the beginning last year when building, faculty and student body were new and strange.

"In all my experience I never saw a student body take hold and settle into the routine on the first day of school like this one," said Arthur M. Brown, principal. The general assembly as the opening feature on Monday morning afforded a chance for making announcements and getting things started smoothly.

Hereafter the assemblies will be held on Fridays at 2:10. Today's assembly will be devoted to faculty talks and matters pertaining to school affairs. Next week's assembly is expected to be devoted to the scholarship society. Scholarship pins will be given out to pupils who earned them last year. Parents are cordially invited to attend the assemblies as well as to visit the school at all times.

Teachers at Wilson were given a pleasant surprise when they entered their class rooms Monday morning. They found awaiting them bouquets with greetings from the Parent-Teacher Association, placed thereby Mrs. Philip Senour, president of the Parent-Teacher Association. The act of thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated and Mrs. Senour was escorted later over to the assembly where she was presented to the student body. Her brief remarks gave promise of a fine spirit of cooperation on the part of the parents with teachers and students.

Arthur Pritchard, Jr., left on Monday for Claremont where he will attend Pomona College. Last week he attended the festivities of welcome to the freshmen at which the incoming students were given a glad hand and told whether or not they had provided themselves with articles of apparel reserved exclusively for the use of upper classmen.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. McRoberts and two sons, "Sonny" and "Buddy", are now residing in the Brockway bungalow at 383 West Central.

Great Power House Chain Is Inspected

Edison Development in the High Sierras Modern Marvel

Nearly Half-Million H. P. Is Developed for Use on System

Newspaper men of Southern and Central California, accompanied by officials of the Southern California Edison Co., recently made a 3-day inspection tour of the Big Creek-San Joaquin River project where the Edison Co. has built a chain of power houses with a total capacity of 453,200 horsepower.

The tour included a trip to Shaver Lake, the company's largest reservoir, the new power house No. 2-A brought into service three weeks ago and to Huntington Lake which lies at an elevation of 7000 feet above sea level.

In an informal address before the group, R. H. Ballard, president of the Edison Company said, "We shall continue the development work on this project as the need for further hydro electric plants becomes apparent."

"During the next five years we plan to spend through our territory the sum of $130,000,000, largely for extensions to our distribution system. Of this amount $68,000,000 will be for payroll with an immediate direct benefit to all the territory served by our company. During the current year we will add to our lines 300,000 H. P. of new business, due to the growing industrial development, the greater application of electricity on the farms and the more general use of electricity in the homes, particularly for cooking and refrigeration."

In speaking of the tremendous strides which this company has made in the past two decades, President Ballard stated, "As Southern and Central California grow, so we shall grow and it shall be our aim to keep safely ahead of the demand. With almost 500,000 horsepower of hydro electric energy in the High Sierras closely tied in with a like quantity of steam generating capacity at Long Beach steam plant, we now have a very flexible and highly efficient system. Steam plant efficiencies have risen at a rapid rate during the current decade. Our plant at the Long Beach harbor is now capable of generating and delivering to the load centers energy at a cost which compares favorably with the costs which could be attained in any undeveloped water power sites in this region and we believe that still greater economies in steam power are not far ahead of us. We are prepared to take advantage of these economies as they develop and to so co-ordinate our hydro and steam generating facilities as to bring the efficiencies of both to the highest point."

Orchestra Is Forming In Monrovia

Large Organization to Take Up High Class of Musical Ensemble Work

An orchestra which will soon be of symphonic proportions and instrumentation, and will be representative of a territory extending from Los Angeles to Pomona, is under way in Monrovia, and local musicians are invited to join.

The orchestra is to be operated in connection with the night school of the Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte high school, rehearsals will be held in the high school orchestra building and concerts given in the beautiful new Monrovia high school auditorium, now nearing completion.

The orchestra will be directed by Harold H. Scott, for the past six years director of instrumental music in the Monrovia public schools. During the past three years the musical organizations from Monrovia high school have stood pre-eminent in this district, and this past year they won two first places and one second place in the band and orchestra competitions throughout the entire Southern California area.

There will be no fee attached to membership and the sole requirements of the individual members are sufficient proficiency on their respective instruments to enable them to perform creditably, reasonable regularity of attendance at rehearsals.

Rehearsals will commence Monday evening, Sept. 17. All musicians who play orchestra instruments who desire to become members of the organization should communicate with Mr. Scott, 118 North Madison, Monrovia, or at the music department of the high school, telephone Blue 127.

No Black Sheep In This Family

At least it would be difficult to convince Miss Christine Barbaglia, Pomona high school girl who is assisting Supt. L. E. Sheets of Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona September 18 to 23, to check up what promises to be the greatest showing of sheep in the history of the fair.

Bids on the San Gabriel Dam will be opened November 14. A period of six years will be allowed for the completion of the project.

The dam will stand 425 feet high, will cost $25,000,000 and will be the largest project of the kind in the world. From 1500 to 2000 men will be employed on the job and the monthly payroll will approximate $50,000.

Woman's Club Notes

Activities at Woman's Club

Open With Bridge Tea

If the success of the bridge tea on Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Club, with Mrs. George M. Lehner, chairman of the courtesy committee as hostess, may be taken as a barometer of the year's work to follow, a prosperous and happy year is assured.

Many visiting club women were present as well as many local women who are not as yet club members, besides the club members, 25 tables being filled.

Prizes for bridge were awarded to Mrs. Frank Gore, Mrs. Harvey Steinberger, Mrs. Bascomb and Mrs. Rudolph Hartman; five hundred honors fell to Miss Helen Smith and Mrs. Bergien, while the door prize in the Osgood Room went to Mrs. Adair.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served at 5. As the formal opening of the club year approaches, section chairmen wish to make announcements regarding membership, book review, arts and crafts sections as follows:

Mrs. W. S. Hull, chairman of the membership committee, asks "each club member to call on all new people in her neighborhood, and also on all old members who have dropped out for any reason. We feel that these neighborly calls are most important as we want to have a friendly club. The city is divided into districts and each member of the committee is looking after the district in which she lives." Mrs. E. D. Burbank, Mrs. Charles B. Klunk, Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. G. I. Farman, Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mrs. George Lehner comprise the committee, assisted by many others.

"Please hand in the names of new members to any of these ladies as soon as possible, as action on them must be taken by the board Wednesday, Sept. 26, in order that the new members may be present at the opening luncheon of the club in October.

Mrs. John Osgood, chairman of the Book Review section, wishes to announce that this section will meet the third Wednesday of each month at 10:30 a. m. in the Osgood room, the first meeting being October 17.

Quoting Mrs. Osgood: "We are most fortunate in having Mrs. O. B. Manchester of South Pasadena as our curator this year. She holds this position with many of the large clubs, and is most highly recommended. In addition to the regular book review work which includes the best in fiction, non-fiction and outstanding magazine articles she will open her talk with a brief discussion of world affairs. While she will touch on all popular books she will endeavor to give a literature of permanent value in the world of letters."

A reception for Mrs. Manchester at the club house will be given Thursday afternoon, Sept. 27, 3 to 5 o'clock, at which time an invitation is extended to all club women who are interested to meet Mrs. Manchester and discuss the plans for the coming year. The fee will be $2.50 to club members and $3.50 for non-residents; only club members in Sierra Madre are eligible to join the section. This applies to all sections this year, but interested women may attend the reception.

It is also hoped to have one or two fine lectures on literature to increase the interest.

Mrs. A. J. Dewey, chairman of the arts and crafts section announces that Mrs. Tuttle will instruct a class in designing while she herself will teach millinery. A class in basket weaving is on the program, but the instructor undecided. These classes are open only to club members. Other classes will be opened as the demand occurs. All interested women please send a card to Mrs. Dewey, stating preference or offering suggestions.

The current events-public welfare section, Mrs. W. J. Lawless, chairman, will meet next Wednesday in the club house at 2 p. m. After the usual editorial review much of the discussion will center around "Save the Beaches" and other features of the state parks bond measure. Mr. Hugh Pomeroy of the Los Angeles city and county parks and beaches committee will address the group. This committee is sponsored by the Los Angeles chamber of commerce and similar groups.

Miss Virginia Jones, chairman of motion picture division will give a brief report.

Mrs. Elmer Green will speak on registration. Mrs. Green urges all women to register at the city hall before October 6, as the books close on that date.

All women of the community, whether club members or not, are invited by Mrs. Lawless to the meeting. Tea will be served at 4.

The first presidents' council of Los Angeles district of the General Federation of Women's Clubs met in Glendale Tuesday at 10 o'clock at the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

Mrs. William Waller Slayden, district president, presided. The chief speaker of the day was Bishop Charles Baird Mitchell of the Philippines, who spoke on the "Multilateral Treaty." Senator Chas. Lyon spoke briefly on the various legislative measures.

Other speakers, including Mab Copeland Lineman, Mrs. John Stearns Thayer, Mrs. Chas. Kellogg and Mrs. George Wetzstein.

There were 667 club women in attendance, 126 clubs being represented. Sierra Madre was represented by Mrs. W. R. Humphries, Mrs. Philip Senour, Mrs. Carol King, Miss Clara Sykes and the press chairman—Mrs. J. H. Robertson, Press Chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hartman returned home Sunday night from San Francisco where they attended the national convention of retail pharmacists. The convention delegates were treated to a great variety of entertainment and sight seeing during the week.

Charles Sellers, local distributor of Los Angeles Creamery products has recently been awarded the contract to supply the schools of Sierra Madre and Monrovia with milk for school use.

SUPPOSE

If all that we say in a single day,
With never a word left out,
Were printed each night, in clear black and white—
'Twould prove queer reading, no doubt.
And then just suppose, Ere one's eyes he could close
He must read the day's record through;
Then wouldn't one sigh, and wouldn't one try
A great deal less talking to do?
And I more than half think that many a kink
Would be straightened in life's tangled thread
If one-half what we say in a single day
Were left forever unsaid.

—Author unknown.

WHEN TO SAY "NO"

COMMUNITY chest or no, there needs to be a revision in methods of soliciting money, for the numerous causes and drives that come along in the course of a year. Two ideas need to be emphasized rather strongly. First, business men are not the only ones who have a right to dig up for everything that comes along; second, business men do not as a rule have a mine from which to dig unlimited supplies of coin of the realm.

When some group or organization starts out to raise money, it is perhaps just human nature for them to follow the line of least resistance. They can reach the largest number of possible contributors with the least effort simply by making the rounds of the business section. And while it may be an unusual event for the solicitors it gets to be an old story with the business man.

Fear is too often a controlling motive in making the business man dig up. He fears the loss of trade or favor if he does not help the particular group asking for a contribution. Usually this fear is groundless, although there is sometimes a veiled threat. People who work that kind of holdup ought to be turned down. In fact they never should be turned loose as solicitors. The business man is the best judge of his own ability to pay. He knows the comment his name on a published subscription list would probably draw from his banker who knows something of his resources and liabilities. The business man who has the courage to say "No" when circumstances require it, deserves commendation rather than censure.

WATCH FOR SPARKS

ALTHOUGH the number of mountain vacationists has diminished greatly during this month, there remains the most critical period of fire danger. As long as the dry weather continues, the menace to the mountain brush cover will remain. Fall cleaning of lots and home grounds is in order. But the greatest of care is needed in the use of fire. Instead of being relaxed, all fire regulations must be more stringently enforced.

People who come back from the beaches and wonder at a few days of uncomfortably warm weather in September need not be surprised. The late J. G. Blumer, who probably devoted more time to study of Sierra Madre weather than any other individual, always chose September as his vacation month. He went to the beach as regularly as September rolled around. And there is usually enough warm weather in that month to justify his choice.

HE CHANGED HIS MIND

EDITOR PARCHER of the Tujunga Sentinel has been a fellow crusader for a new and simplified state constitution. But he has changed his mind. And this is how come:

Sometimes we have to change our mind, and this is one of the times. Only last week we were calling on the press of the state to join in a crusade for a simplified state constitution that would deal with fundamentals only and leave the details of government to the more flexible control of legislative enactment. This week we want to join a posse of outraged citizens that will march to Sacramento—getting more numerous and more outraged all the way—and exterminate the state legislature, root and branch, burn all the accumulated mass of laws and destroy the machinery by which California state laws are made.

What changes us so abruptly is the discovery of the fool law, passed by the last legislature, forbidding high school districts from furnishing free transportation to pupils living inside any city.

According to the statement of authorities who have investigated it, the passage of this law was secured by some individual who was interested in a bus line somewhere and would stand to gain a little business if the law was passed. So far as we can ascertain nobody connected with the state school system nor with any high school board asked for the law or supported it. Certainly no patron of the schools supported it. It seems to have been a personal, private measure desired by just one man; and it slipped through the legislative hopper because nobody was watching.

The result is serious hardship to a hundred and fifty high school pupils in the Tujunga valley and to many thousands of others in all parts of the state. For years past the policy of the California school system has been to encourage larger and larger units in both the elementary and high schools on the ground of economy and efficiency. School authorities have held that it is better and less expensive to create large high school districts with a full equipment and a specialized corps of teachers and to furnish free transportation to pupils living in the remote portions of the district than to build and equip a larger number of smaller schools. The high schools of the state have planned and built on this theory, and communities all over the state have adjusted themselves to it.

And now, because one man wanted more business for his buses, the whole plan of the state's high school system is shoved into reverse gear.

We cannot imagine that any of the legislators who voted on this measure knew what he was doing. It was just tossed into the stream of bills that floods the legislature at every session and went through unnoticed, like a shoe button in a bag of black-eyed beans. And it is just about even chances that anybody else who happens to have a personal measure that he wants enacted into law could get it through in the same way.

Members of the legislature admit with the utmost frankness that they cannot keep any track of the swarm of bills that pours down on them. If they sat up day and night and did not do anything else they could not read them all, to say nothing of giving them intelligent study. But they do not even try to find out what is in the other fellow's bills, because every legislator is busy all the time trying to pilot his own bills through.

And the people of the state are helpless. They cannot devote all their time to watching the legislature when it is in session they cannot devote even the breathing space provided between the two parts of the bifurcated session. They have to leave it to the legislators. And the only hope of safety is either to elect men who can understand that keeping out bad laws is even more important than passing good ones—or just abolish the legislature altogether.

The latter plan would not be quite so revolutionary as it sounds, either. Nearly everything that anybody thinks is important has been adopted into the state constitution by now, and at the rate we add to it every two years we ought certainly to keep up with any legitimate need the future may bring.

October 6 is the last day to register for the presidential election. Sounds like a long way off. But people who do not register now while they happen to be thinking of it are apt to wake up on the morning of November 6 with a sudden realization that they can't vote for the next president of the United States.

If Governor Smith will just keep on denying rumors that he has sometimes taken too much liquor on board he will have everybody convinced of something or other, according to whether they are credulous, skeptical or just envious.

That air meet was a great occasion for getting people air minded. But it certainly took a lot of automobiles to get 'em to that air meet.

Reservations

By J. R. E.

I count as one among the dead,
That day in which it can be said:
"I had no desire to get ahead."

When a body of citizens feel that it is necessary to pass resolutions commending a trial judge because of his "fairness" is conducting a case in court, is it not, really, a pretty sad commentary on the present state of affairs?

Advice to Judge Hardy: "From now on, insist on cash, old top; insist on cash."

A young fellow held on charges of attempting to steal an auto is held in jail because he has no money to post for bail, according to his attorney. Yet he must have some money, or he would have no attorney.

The public seems to be getting fed up on motion-picture celebrities. When a couple of "stars" from Hollywood were introduced during the air races Saturday, the crowd didn't give 'em a tumble. But Admiral Moffet got quite a hand.

The cheers, however, were reserved for Colonel Lindbergh, the "Lone Eagle" of the air.

Harry Carr has decided that it is impossible for the American Indians to have come from Asia via the Bering Sea. Thus is another question which has vexed scientific minds for many years, definitely settled by Mr. Carr.

The scientists may now safely again turn to the old, old problem of "How old is Ann?"

The Sierra Madre Band will make its first appearance at the city park tonight. Don't expect too much of the organization. A number of the players long ago retired from active participation in band or orchestra work and are working with "left over" horns of questionable worth. There was no fund to buy new music, with the exception of one or two cheap arrangements, and the number of musicians available has given no opportunity to fill up each section properly. Nevertheless, the band has been working faithfully and it is probable that all but the most critical will be agreeably surprised with tonight's concert.

The British prince who caused such a flurry in Hollywood recently, dined one day with "the nation's sweetheart." We wonder if she sat down hard on the floor, with her feet in the air, for the edification of his royal highness? If she didn't, he missed Mary in one of her "most intimate" poses.

The pivotal point in the school situation this week seems to be whether or not the conditions are causing families to leave the city. Perhaps it would be more constructive to view it from the affirmative angle of whether or not a splendid school (in addition to the undeniable beauty and charm of the city) would attract families to Sierra Madre. Negative viewpoints don't mean anything in constructive development.

So far as that is concerned every community has its differences of opinion. Some folks want water, and some don't; some want gas, and others burn wood; some want swimming pools, and some don't; some vote for a new city hall, and some vote against it; some want new pavements, and some are satisfied with what they have. But a town which does not have a majority of citizens who think their town is the best in the world, and are willing to get out and dig in their toes to help it progress, isn't headed anywhere, and it isn't going no place.

By the way, a chap told me the other day that "Reservations" idea about a breakfast club—no dues, no initiation fees—to meet once a week and start the work of putting Bailey Canyon on its way to being the gem of beauty spots in Southern California, is a good one. We know it is; and that makes two of us. Next!

And don't forget those ham and them eggs!

Chinese law makers have discovered a way to cure speeding and reckless driving, it is asserted. In Pekin, reckless drivers not only lose their licenses, but their heads as well. There are few cases of reckless driving in China.

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

Sierra Madre people who have spent some time this summer down in the neighborhood of Manhattan Beach have enjoyed meeting Mr. and Mrs. Carol House, formerly of Sierra Madre, in their new location. Mr. House is in charge of the pier end of the launch and fishing barge business. It is not a gambling palace like the one which anchored off Long Beach for awhile. But some of our fishermen can tell you whether or not fishing there is a gamble.

Local people received many courtesies at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. House. And this was particularly true of the children from the Plaza Community Home who spent a week at Manhattan. Thru the kindness of Mr. House the whole Home contingent were treated to a launch ride and fishing expedition to the barge.

DRAWING POWERS—

They say Col. Lindbergh drew $8 a day for the time he spent flying at the air meet last week. But that isn't all—he drew about 250,000 cash customers and several times that number who watched his air antics from outside the Mines field fence, all of whom will testify that he earned his money.

DRIVING 'EM AWAY—

"Talk about people moving away on account of schools," remarked Frank Spencer the other day. "I can remember about a dozen different things that have been reported as driving hordes of people away from Sierra Madre. It was all according to what somebody happened to be agitating at the time, lower fares on the P. E., or more frequent car service, an earlier car in the morning or a later car at night, or the zoning ordinance."

Yes, and I can remember when it was the lack of gas service, or lack of water to water lawns, or the presence of burro corrals or the absence of them, the presence of sanitariums or the lack of them, or the lack of a picture show to provide entertainment so people of wealth could keep servants contented. If all these things had driven people away at the rate indicated by current agitation at the time there wouldn't be any population left within 20 miles of Sierra Madre.

GIVE CREDIT—

There is so much to be proud of in the school facilities available here that it is too bad not to let the world know it. The trouble with much of the current agitation is that it throws discredit on the whole school system. The present joint school committee will perform a worth-while service if it merely defines the issue. If it will show the things that can be done then there will be something to agitate and work for.

IN THE MEAN TIME—

Have you filed your application yet for the job of city councilman? Have you applied for tickets to the Stanford and Notre Dame games with U.S.C.? Have you forgotten that our own home town band gives a concert tonight in the park?

Prescriptions

The confidence our customers have in our prescription service has been built up by years of painstaking effort. We use only the very best of pure, fresh potent drugs, and dispense them with a system of checking that prevents mistakes. And the charges are moderate.

Library Is Popular In Hot Season

August Patronage Is Heavy, With Light Fiction in Demand

August was by no means a dull month at the public library, according to the report of Miss Lulu Moore, librarian. The circulation reached a total of 4300 books, which would account for a circulation of more than 50,000 yearly. If the increase continues regularly, as compared with the previous year, the library board will have none too much money available even with the increased budget allowance.

Of the month's circulation, 3165 was adult and 1137 juvenile. Adult fiction constituted 56 per cent, and non-fiction 17 per cent. The August circulation last year was 3836. Twenty-nine new patrons registered during the month.

The following new books were added during the month:

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

Once more the Sierra Madre Volunteer Firemen congregated at the City Hall for a drill, business meeting and lunch with coffee. Milt Steinberger put on a swell Dutch lunch that pleased the palates. The eats always bear mention, for they are the longest remembered. A fast hookup was made to the plug on Sultok and water sprayed on the new ball field, killing two birds with one stone. Assistant Chief George Norris took charge and as there were no complaints from the ball players, the job must have been satisfactory. At any rate the hookup was good and the pumps found to be in fine working order. Altho he is not of a large stature, "Scotty" Swanson held on to a nozzle in he-man style. There were many able co-workers to catch him coming down if he was taken up. Vern Udell was kept busy issuing commands appropriate to his station. The hose was returned to the truck by the regular attendants to this matter.

Our meeting started off with several fines as usual for lack of proper regalia, no tin foil, or saying "darn." It has come to a state where we don't know when a "cuss" word is a cuss word, but as long as it brings the shillings to the little tin can we must not say, "Oh, my goodness!"

A great deal of the meeting period was taken up by discussion of the card party. Reports were made on the sale of tickets. Loud and boisterous by the ones with large sales and meek and mild by the "no sales." W. L. Hibbs reported the largest sale of tickets, numbering over the hundred mark. Hibbs must be given a great deal of the credit for the success of our affairs. Selling, Al Lee needs a good cause and a bunch of tickets and they are sold. If the rest of us were only as successful, we would surely put things over big. Selling tickets or getting a crowd out is no easy thing to do, and the time required and given to this cause by the members of the organization is surely appreciated when an affair is a success.

The department was given an opportunity to take part in the suggested Community Chest. This is before the house for thought and will be discussed later. There is only one drive for finance that the Fireboys are really anxious to be a real go. This is the community Christmas tree fund. This we want to go over and with an assurance of the equivalent amount from the Community Chest, I feel sure there will not be sufficient objections to refrain from joining the spirit.

Several of the fireboys witnessed the baseball game Saturday and to those who missed it, here it is as we saw it. Allison for Monrovia was hit by the pitcher, stealing second on the next pitch. Kerble grounded and was thrown out at first. Brown hit safely, scoring Allison. Smith stole a hit bringing in Bowman. Temple stole a base. Lamar walked. Scott was thrown out at first. Two runs. Harkness for Sierra Madre walked and stole second. He scored on Poehler's hit. Poehler was put out at third base. Emil Smith drove out a single. Pratt was safe at first. Smith advancing. Elk was thrown out at first. Lorenzini hit for three bases scoring Smith and Pratt. Leo Smith singled scoring Lorenzini. Smith was thrown out at second. Four runs. Young out to pitcher. Keith out at first. Allison hit by pitched ball. Kerble safe on an error. Bowman hit scoring Allison. Rothwell fanned. One run.

Langworthy singles. Kenney flies out to first. Harkness grounded out. Poehler makes two-bagger. Freddy Lalone batting for Emil Smith grounds out. Langworthy scored on Poehler's hit.

Temple safe at first. Lamar struck out. Temple scored on error. Scott struck out. Young fanned. One run.

Pratt struck out. Elk hit safely. Lorenzini got first base. Smith struck out. Langworthy flies out. Keith struck out. Allison hit for third time. Kerble is safe on error. Bowman walks, filling bases. Rothwell hits two-bagger, scoring three runs. Temple is safe on error. Scott safe on error and Temple scores. Young is safe on error. Keith fanned. Allison walks. Kerble out at first. Five runs.

Kenney safe at first. Harkness safe at first. Poehler out. Kenney steals home. Lalone strikes out. Harkness scores on fumble. Pratt struck out. Two runs.

Bowman safe at first. Rothwell hit by pitcher. Temple out at first. Bowman scoring. Manager Whoziss batting for Lamar singles. Scott struck out. Young hits safely, but the manager is called out at third. Two runs.

Elk hit for two bases. Lorenzini safe on error. Elk scores on wild throw. L. Smith strikes out. Lorenzini is caught at second. Langworthy out at first. One run.

Keith made a two-bagger. Allison struck out. Kerble struck out. Bowman struck out. No scores.

Kenney made three base hit. Harkness whiffed. Poehler is safe as Kenney scores. Lalone singled scoring Poehler. Pratt fans. Elk safe on error. Lalone scoring. Lorenzini out. Three runs.

This may or may not be an accurate account of the affair but it is sufficiently so to acquaint one with the way the game was played and although it was a very ragged affair, the writer for one enjoyed it immensely and urges the boys as well as the manager and others interested to continue with the interest displayed before this game was played. It will require many such games as this to acquire the needed experience necessary to get together a well working baseball machine. Altho it may have appeared to have been a poorly played game, we must remember that it was really the first game, and the first time that the boys have experienced the real nerve tension and excitement. This will all be overcome by staying with it. Langworthy at the receiving end was a real surprise and deserves some real commendation for the manner in which he caught Kenney. Langworthy, like most all of Sierra Madre's young men, has been denied this pleasure of ball playing for a great many years. Bob Kenney in the box looked good. He will have to learn to take a great deal more time and thought.

Pratt played a nice game at 1st. The short time that Emil Smith played he gave a fairly good demonstration. Doc Elk showed a lot of interest at third. Harkness plainly maneuvered as a ballplayer.

The boys of the department are all well and anxiously await the next alarm. Until then the FIRE'S OUT!

From the Old News Files

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Sierra Madre was visited by the worst hail storm in its history on September 23. Hail stones three inches long and with the bulk of hens' eggs were of common report. Gutters were filled with hail which remained packed as a solid mass until the following day. Roofs were punctured and many of the tent houses which were then numerous were virtually destroyed.

The Board of Trade received a proposition from R. J. Dunn to build a gas plant for Sierra Madre, if the citizens would subscribe for $20,000 worth of stock out of a total of $27,500. President Keys appointed an investigating committee consisting of M. H. Bridle, N. H. Hosmer, J. J. Graham, J. A. Madden and W. S. Andrews.

Fourteen Sierra Madre boys attending Thero Polytechnic Institute were Chas. Camp, Raymond Andrews, Reeve Stewart, Karl Kraft, Wayne Thornburg, Max Thornburg, Roydon Pool, Adolph Kershaw, Will Tufts, Laurel Steinberger, Fred Hilton, Fred Hatfield, Ralph Odwarker, Merton Clark, Hicks Thornburg.

Mrs. Elizabeth Borglum, Sierra Madre artist, was awarded first prize for a painting at the state fair.

TEN YEARS AGO

J. N. Hawks was appointed to the place on the school board made vacant by the resignation of J. C. Dickson.

George D. Johnstone and Winston Burbank, two boys who were spending the summer in the canyon, gave a picture show which netted $1.10 for the Red Cross.

Samuel L. Graham was attending the naval radio school at Harvard University.

Pacific Coast To be United In Campaign

Pacific Highway Body Aims to Exploit Outing Facilities

"Pool and Pull Together," is the slogan now being put into effect by participants in recent regional conferences held by members of the Pacific Highway Association for the purpose of consolidating Coastlong cooperation in its advertising program, according to a report just issued by E. A. Crowley, general manager.

The plan, as outlined by Crowley, and approved unanimously by a large gathering of representatives of the Sacramento Valley counties and of Western Nevada, which assembled in Sacramento last week, is to unite all districts of the Pacific Coast in a collective effort to "sell" the entire territory to the tourist thru a joint advertising campaign.

"Without conflicting with any existing promotion agency, rightfully sectional in its scope, the Pacific Highway Association will serve to amplify every interrelated call to come to our coast," declares Crowley. "Our purpose is to stimulate tourist travel thru the most effective advertising media on an impartial, non-sectional and non-profit basis."

"Our field is not confined to a section or state; it is international," Crowley enunciates. "Our advertisements will cover the attractions of all the region between Lower California and Upper British Columbia with the idea of inducing the tourist to see the entire Pacific Coast. We aim also to increase interstate traffic by giving dependable advice to the motoring public of Pacific Coast centers of population," adds the association's manager.
